

Henry Martyn Institute:
International Centre for Research,
Interfaith Relations and Reconciliation
Affiliated to the Senate of Serampore College (University)
SUMMER COURSE

About: Henry Martyn Institute is organizing a short term summer course on Islam which aims to promote inter-religious understanding with the special focus on Islam.

Eligibility: This programme is open to all the theological and secular persons from all religious and ideological backgrounds. No prior significant understanding of Islam is required.

Nature of the course: This course offers an introduction to the religion of Islam. It covers basic foundation of Islamic beliefs and practices, Quran, Sufism, Islamic law, Muslim Theology, Islamic History, Modern trends in Islam, etc. which is based on class room lectures, group discussions and field exposure.

Purpose: The course enables the participants to understand key concept of Islam. At the same time, it aims to explore further studies in Religion.

- Venue at Henry Martyn Institute, Hyderabad.
- Last date for submission of application form is on 30th April, 2018
- Duration of the course is from 7th -12th May, 2018.
- Scholarship is offered for boarding & lodging.
- Registration fee Rs.500/- only.

To get further information please Contact:

PG ACADEMICS
Henry Martyn Institute
6-3-128/1, Beside National Police Academy
Shivrampally, Hyderabad-500052, Telangana State
Mob: 8106539585; 09856258815; Email- pgacademics@hmiindia.org